Charity Cut-A-Thon!

The HAIRDUZ Salon, 2640 Frankfort Avenue, in co-operation with the Jefferson Street Baptist Center will be having a fundraiser for the homeless on Wednesday, August 19, 1992 from 9:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. Haircuts will be $10.00 with the proceeds going to the Jefferson Street Baptist Center's Phoenix Project Transitional Housing Program. The Phoenix Project provides transitional housing and support to homeless persons seeking to "get back on their feet" and obtain healthy, independent lifestyles. The Jefferson Street Baptist Center is a ministry of Long Run Baptist Association and provides a number of services for the homeless as well as for children, youth, adults, and senior citizens in the neighborhood surrounding the Clarksdale Government Housing Project.

In addition to the fundraiser, Mark Ward and Rennie Beck at HAIRDUZ cut hair on a regular basis for homeless folks from the center.
